

Who we are

ViEO Technologies Ltd is a Zambian technology company established with the single goal of helping Zambian businesses and organizations take lead in technology innovation and digital transformation.

Our Vision

To see a world where Zambian businesses and organization take lead technology innovation and digital transformation.

Our Mission

To provide the best technology services to meet the requirements of Zambian businesses and organization in the age of technological innovation and digital transformation.

Our Services

Products

Vieo.tv - An online platform for live streaming. Vieo.tv allows event organizers an interactive reach with an audience beyond the limits of a physical venue while returning control over access and payment for the online live event.

MegaCog - through MegaCog we build autonomous robots from Drones to mobile manipulator robots.

Consult

Data Analytics - data is the oil of the 21st century. We provide state-of-the-art data analysis using AI and Machine learning. We help our clients with useful insights from the data in their organization as well as online resources and social media.

Business automation - we provide a technology-enabled automation of complex business processes. We help our clients streamline their business for simplicity, achieve digital transformation, increase service quality, improve service delivery or contain costs.

Software systems - from health information to accounting systems and school management systems, we provide the best software system for our clients needs.

Security systems - we'll help our clients with technology based security system suited for them at the best value. Electronic security systems, alarms, CCTV, burglary alarms and fire alarms to improve security for residential homes and commercial businesses. Access control keypads and modular access control systems including proximity devices.

Contact us

Contact us for more information and questions on how we can help you.

Website: <https://viero.tv>

Email: info@viero.tv

Phone: (260)966 135 319